BioHealth Diagnostics Inc. - Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

Fiscal Period Ended December 31, FY2024

Note 1 - Principal Accounting Policies and Regulatory Context

BioHealth Diagnostics Inc. develops clinical molecular diagnostic kits. The financial statements comply with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS). Revenues from reagent diagnostic kit sales are recognized at point of delivery, whereas instrument placements are evaluated under multi-component contract criteria.

Note 2 - Government Grants and Collaborative Research

During FY2024, the entity received GBP 2.4 million in government grants for oncology diagnostic development. Grants related to income are recognized in the statement of profit and loss as a reduction of research and development expense in the period in which the associated research costs are incurred.

Note 3 - Contingent Liabilities and IP Licensing

The company is engaged in cross-licensing agreements with two academic research institutions. Contingent royalty obligations range between 2.5% and 4.0% of net commercial kit revenues. There are no ongoing patent infringement disputes or litigation claims.
